

Beth K. Flowers

Beth K. Flowers is an associate at Mathis, Marifian & Richter, Ltd., who focuses her practice in estate planning, real estate law and business law. Beth works with clients in establishing wills and trusts, estate and gift tax planning, trust administration, real estate transactions and corporate and business law. She practices principally in the areas of death and disability planning (wills, trusts, estate and gift taxes, and powers of attorney), probate administration, real estate matters and business entity formation. Beth spends a great deal of her time helping executors and trustees administer estates and trusts during the difficult time after the passing of a loved one in an effort to make the administration process as smooth and uneventful as possible.

Professional Affiliations

Beth is licensed to practice law in Illinois and Missouri. She is a member of the Illinois State Bar Association, Missouri Bar Association, Madison County Bar Association and the Estate Planning Council of St. Louis.

Since 2007, Beth has presented a lecture each year on "Legal Issues and the Elderly" to the students at SIU School of Dental Medicine.

Education

Beth received a B.A. cum laude in Business Administration from Truman State University in 2001 and received her J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law in 2005.
