

Bradley W. Small

Bradley W. Small is a shareholder at Mathis, Marifian and Richter (MM&R) who focuses his practice in banking law, real estate law, bankruptcy, estate planning, commercial litigation and wills and trusts.

For the past 30 years, Brad has represented banks and other financial institutions and handled probate, real estate and commercial work. Since joining MM&R in 2004, he has expanded the firm's banking and finance capabilities.

Before joining MM&R, Brad represented a wide range of financial clients at a Nashville, IL.-based law firm. Since 1993, he has served as president of an independent community bank in Southern Illinois, and he acted as director and audit chair of the St. Louis Federal Reserve from 2001 to 2004. He has also written numerous articles relating to mortgage foreclosures and procedures in Illinois in the Commercial, Banking and Bankruptcy law newsletter and is a popular speaker at economic conferences throughout Illinois, including the Illinois State Bar Association's Banking, Bankruptcy and Commercial Law Section and Estate Planning Section.

Besides practicing law in MM&R's Belleville office, Brad also actively practices in Nashville, IL. and throughout Southern Illinois.

Professional Affiliations

Brad is currently an associate member of the Community Bankers Association and the Illinois Bankers Association, and he is also a member of the American Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association and Missouri State Bankers Association. He currently serves as the Vice Chairman (2010) on the Commercial Banking and Bankruptcy Law Council of the ISBA where he also has served as chairman of the Banking Committee. Brad is also currently the director of the Kaskaskia College Foundation.
