

Colin C. Clark

Colin C. Clark is an associate at Mathis, Marifian & Richter, Ltd. He graduated from St. Louis University School of Law in 2012, where he represented SLU Law at the 2011-2012 National Environmental Law Moot Court Competition. During his time in law school, he also served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Philip M. Frazier in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Illinois and collaborated on a 67-page proposal to the city council of Ferguson, Missouri, concerning business and housing development. Before law school, he attended University of Illinois where he received a B.A. in Political Science and Communications.

Colin focuses his practice at MMR in transactional work. Prior to joining the firm in 2015, he worked at Black, Hedin, Ballard, McDonald, P.C. in Mt. Vernon, Illinois. There, he assisted businesses with regulatory compliance and reporting, operational and formation issues and transactional matters.

Additionally, Clark was selected to be a faculty fellow for Professor Justin Hansford at St. Louis University where he performed research in support of law review article on historic housing discrimination case, Garrett v. City of Hamtramck.

Clark is active in his community as a member of the Rotary International (District 6510) and a Development Board member for Illinois YMCA Youth and Government. In his free time, Clark enjoys playing a variety of sports and is an avid learner of space and astronomy.

Colin was admitted to the Illinois and Missouri Bar in September of 2012.
