

Natalie Lorenz

Natalie Lorenz is an associate at Mathis, Marifian & Richter, Ltd. She graduated summa cum laude from Southern Illinois University School of Law in 2012 as valedictorian of her class. While in law school, Natalie served on the Board of Editors of the SIU Law Journal and received eight CALI awards for highest class grades. She wrote two published articles and earned numerous scholarships and honors, including the Lowell H. Jacobson Scholarship (for academic performance and public service), the Phi Kappa Phi Award, the Academic Excellence Award, and the Joseph Bartylak Fellowship (for public service). Before attending law school, Natalie received a B.A. summa cum laude in Psychology from Southeast Missouri State University in 2008, graduating with a 4.0 G.P.A.

Natalie focuses her practice at MMR in commercial litigation, wrongful discharge, premises liability, worker's compensation, medical malpractice, personal injury, appellate practice, civil litigation, employment law, administrative law, discrimination, and construction law. Prior to joining the firm in 2012, she gained experience with Land of Lincoln Legal Assistance Foundation, where she volunteered with attorneys to provide a variety of legal services to individuals in Southern Illinois who could not have otherwise afforded them. Natalie also served as a teaching assistant and research assistant at SIU School of Law. In addition, she interned with a federal magistrate judge during law school.

Natalie was admitted to the Illinois bar in 2012 and to the Missouri bar in 2013. She is a member of the Illinois, Missouri, St. Clair County, and American Bar Associations, as well as the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis. She is also a member of the Columbia, Illinois Kiwanis Club.
